our values →

Your profile

- You love people and bring experience and enthusiasm for teaching language skills.
- You are willing to develop and learn in new areas.
- You can devote at least 8-10 hours a week to language training.
- You know Microsoft Office and ZOOM or are willing to learn about needed digital tools.
- You work online from all over the world or in our office in Tübingen.
- You are empathetic, patient and comfortable in an intercultural context.

Your responsibilities

You will prepare and carry out language trainings mostly online via ZOOM. The trainings can be intensive or semi-intensive group trainings as well as flexible one on one or partner trainings. The pedagogic team accompanies you during the training and you'll get a lot of impulses and possibilities for further education through workshops and exchange with the team afterwards. It is important to us: We don't hire perfection. We welcome individuals. We'll help you to develop your skills.
